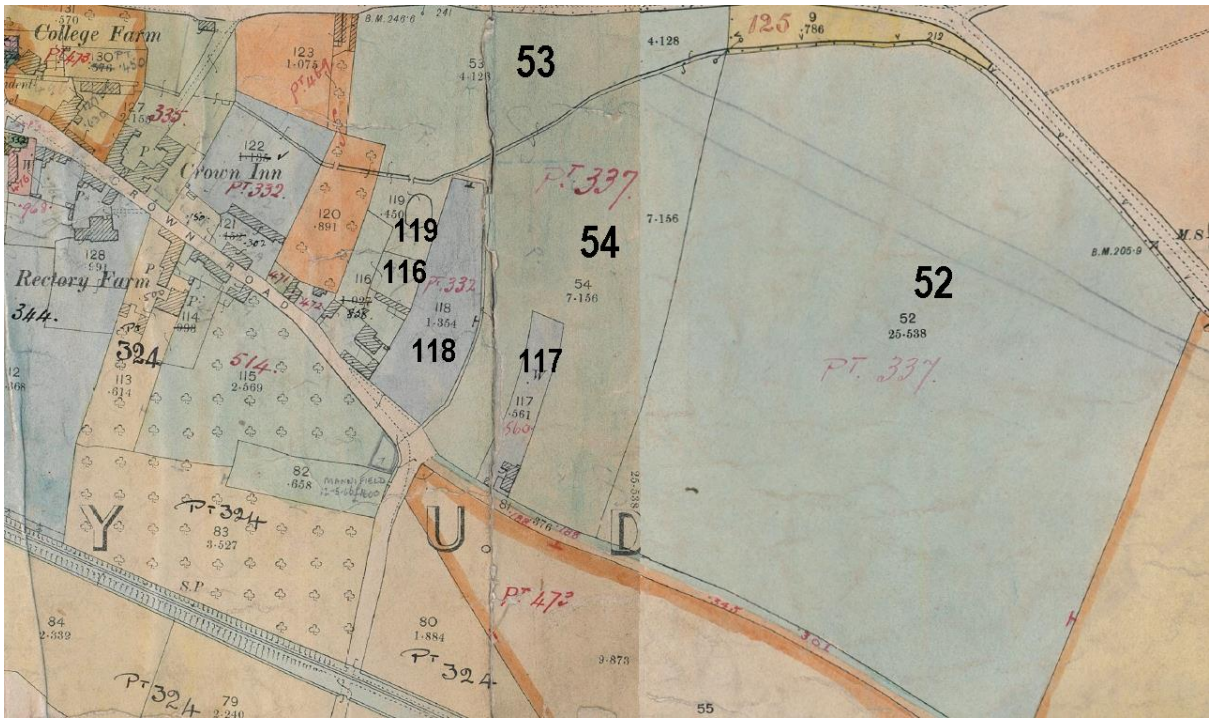
Ambrose Farm owners

	Event	Owner	Comment/source
1798		Thomas Armborough (1768-1812) and son John (d. 1796)	Also owned Mulberry Court 1772-1789
1841	Census 1841	Elizabeth Armborough (wife of John??) aged 70
Pre 1894		Rev Henry Wace (Principal of Kings College, London)	Tenant Edward Davis, later his son James, paying c. £100 p.a. Deed of 1894 as mock-up below
1894	Sale for £1355	William Boughton (d. 1920) of 5 Broadway, Hammersmith	Tenant Charles Shepherd, both names confirmed by 1910 Valuation Survey, which shows that it farmed 37 acres
1922	Sale for £1900	Charles Shepherd	He also bought a large area of land which had been part of Crown Farm, owned by the late A W Hall.
1927	Sale	Magdalen College	All land other than part to Gibbard, presumably the house, and the frontage to Crown Road on which he built 4 pairs of detached houses, one each for his four sons.
1927	Sale	Edward Gibbard	He was a horse dealer and had a butcher's shop in Oxford market, see text below Figure 2
1945	Sale	Bullingdon RDC	8-0-32 acres
1949	Sale	May Jefferies	The Gibbard holding less the Bullingdon RDC sale
1950	Sale	John Ernest Freeborne	Butcher, who also had a shop
1955	Sale	Fred and Moira Anson	Plots 119 and part 53
1955	Part sale	Marjorie Baylis	Bought house in 1964
1960	Sale	Builder of Anson Close	Plots 119 and part 53



The current house, Ambrose Farm, remains on Plot 116 of some 0.86 acres.