

Littleworth (2009)

- 2a New house
2b New house
- 2 Red brick house Bridge House (now whitewashed pebbledash) semi-detached Mr and Mrs Clements lived here with their sons Ted, Les & 'Snookie')
- 4 Redbrick semi-detached house (now pebbledash) Mr & Mrs Thomas Munt lived here with their son, Tom, and daughters Alice and Dorrie. At the back of his house in c. 1960, there were large cages which housed monkeys. You could walk past this and watch and talk to the monkeys but there was a large sign there reminding us MONKEYS BITE.
- ~~6~~
~~8~~
~~10~~
11 Shotover View
~~12~~
13 ShotoverView
14 George & Mabel Belcher family lived here with their sons Derek, Tony, Mervyn
& Christopher, and their daughter Rosemary
15 ShotoverView
16 Corner Cottage
17 ShotoverView
18 Built in the garden of number 20 by Hector Malins' son, David, circa 1950
19 Shotover View (Martin and Carrie Whitworth)
20 (Originally two cottages: Mr & Mrs 'Nab' Sawyer lived here with their daughters Winifred (now Mrs Reid) and Liz (now Mrs Shepherd). It is an old cottage, much enlarged, and it is also called Brook Cottage! Hector and Violet Malin lived here and also 'Old Dot Smith' (wardrobe dealer). Before Dot it was owned by Polly & Nellie Currill. William Currill may have been their father – he was a market gardener shown in the directories of 1899, 1911 and 1920.
21 Shotover View: Jack Smith's daughter Mrs Gwen Reid lives here.
22 In front of this was a large thatched house, belonging to Clara and Alf Smith and known as Littleworth farmhouse, demolished in the 1950s. The current No. 22 is a large stone house and garden known as Kelly's Cottage.
23 Shotover View
24 Local authority flat
25 Shotover View Gerald Cobb was born in this house on 11 December 1920. lived here all his life. He worked in Cooper's Brickyard for fifteen months before moving to Pressed Steel where he worked for 48 years.
26 Local authority flat
~~27~~
28 Local authority flat
29
29 Local authority flat
30 Bert Finn & Annie lived here in the 1930s & 40s

- 32 Local authority flat
33 The Shirley's lived here with their son, two daughters and grandson, Freddie.
34 Local authority flat
35 Built during 1960s in the garden of number 39. Alan Reynold and his wife lived here with their two daughters.
- 36
37
38
39 Probably a 19th century house. Cribbins family lived here and later the Prestons.
40 Nellie Currill lived in a dilapidated thatched cottage herein the 1930's. It was pulled down in the 1960s when the Hickey's house was built.
41 This is the first of six brick bungalows - all now much enlarged. It is owned by Geoff Stephens, who has created a beautiful garden behind the house.
42 Whitebeam House (20th century brick) David and Catherine Hughes live here.
43 Large brick bungalow with two palm trees in the front garden!
44 Old stone house owned by Mark and Rob Turner (Windmill committee) Brick 45 bungalow, painted pink, much enlarged.
46 Brick house, rebuilt and much enlarged, with its back up against the road.
47 Brick bungalow, much enlarged, known as 'Green Bank' (painted pink) Mill 48 View: double fronted brick house built in 1837. Hugh and Yta Kitchin live here with their children.
49 New largish brick house which replaced a brick bungalow.
50 Mr & Mrs Shirley lived here. This house, now named Fairview, has been rendered and painted in deep pink/red
51 Large, white, brick bungalow known as Cedar Lodge
52 This rendered brick house has been largely re-built, with its back towards the road. It now faces west
53 Newer bungalow called Lorrain Lodge
54 One of a pair of large new houses which were built here in 2007 when Gwen Smith's (Mrs Reid) cottage was demolished, (see also 56)
55 Large new house called Cedar Lodge
56 One of a pair of large new houses which were built here in 2007 when Gwen Smith's (Mrs Reid) cottage was demolished, (see also 54)
- 57
58 Large new brick house with three gables, and a long drive.
59
60 Large new property known as 'Hawthorns'

Numbers deleted were not in use in 2009, and are not in use in 2018