

PRIVATE RESIDENTS

Frederick Alden J.P. The Mount, 11 Park Hill
 John Gay Barns. The Elms, now Mulberry Court
 Mrs Bott. 47 Church Road
 James Brown. The Turrets, 19 Park Hill
 Miss Casemore. 37 High Street
 Mrs Cooper. The Lodge, 25 Park Hill
 John Coppock. Not found
 Rev. William Dixon Blachford Curry M.A. (vicar). Vicarage
 Mrs Deare. The Chestnuts, 3 Park Hill
 Mrs. Gale. 60 Church Road. (the map shows this as a site with no house on it opposite the east end of the school in Church Road)
 Mrs. Gale. Ivy Lodge, The Old Parsonage, High Street
 Miss Hinksman. The Yews, now The Old House
 Edward Nevell J.P. The Lawn, now Wheatley House
 Rev. William Newton, (Congregational)
 William Iliffe Pike. Iliffe cottage, 45 Church Road
 Mrs Rolfe. Holywell Cottage, 49 Church Road
 Joseph Stanley. (now re-developed as 72/74 Church Road)
 Edward Walker. Rectory Farm, Crown Road
 Arthur Welch. The Gables, 17 Park Hill

COMMERCIAL

Ernest Alden, butcher. Not found unless living with Frederick Alden at The Mount, 11 Park Hill. Presumably he worked at the Rose business at the west end of Church Road, which he took over in 1911
 William Avery & Sons, timber merchants & saw mills, Wheatley station. Yard by railway, lived Roberts House
 John Gay Barns L.R.C.P.Lond., M.R.C.S.Eng. physician & surgeon, medical officer to Urban District Council & medical officer & public vaccinator, Wheatley district, Headington union & Waterperry district, Thame union. The Elms now Mulberry Court
 Arthur Bathard, butcher. Lived at Chillingworth House, shop probably on High Street frontage
 Walter Brazil, blacksmith, 54 High Street
 Mrs. Brooks beer retailer..Cricketers Arms
 Henry Brown, Railway hotel
 John Chapman, painter. 90 High Street
 John Clayton, baker. 39 High Street
 John Cooper, lime burner. Brickworks in Littleworth, not clear here he was living
 Joseph Cooper (executors. of). brick makers. Brickworks in Littleworth
 Ellen Cripps (Mrs.), miller (wind). Windmill Cottage
 John Crook, quarry owner. 1 Park Hill
 Cullum Bros, wheelwrights. & builders. Operated from site east of 49 Church Road, and also 'Hathaways' in Station Road where he lived.
 William Currill, market gardener. 33/35 Littleworth
 Walter Davis, builder. 109 High Street

William Dennis, farmer. 42 Ladder Hill, farming 105 acres.
 Dungey Brothers, grocer. 11/13 High Street
 George Lincoln English, tailor. 45 High Street
 Frederick Fowler, farmer. 40-42 High Street
 Alfred Gunn, Sun P.H
 Mary Hancock (Miss), dress maker. Not found
 Joshua Harris, grocer & draper. 95/97 High Street
 Charles Heath, King & Queen P.H
 Henry Holland, shopkeeper. His 'number' from the 1910 survey suggests the vacant plot opposite 6 Farm Close Lane
 Home of Rest for Convalescent Church workers
 (Miss Parker, matron). 7 Park Hill
 Mrs Life, draper. 47 High Street
 John Martin, beer retailer. Red Lion
 Samuel Mellett, saddler & harness maker
 Merry Bells Coffee House (George James Silvester, manager)
 Frederick Mold, grocer. Oxford House/Language School
 James Munt, wood dealer. 75 or 77 High Street
 Alfred Phelps, beer retailer. Railway Hotel
 Thomas Putt, boot repairer. 8 Blenheim Lane
 Premier Meat Co. Limited. The western part of Taylors, 50 High Street
 Thomas Robbins, farmer. College Farm
 Edward Roberts, White Hart P.H
 Rose Brothers. 2 Church Road adjacent butcher's shop
 Arthur Sheldon, assistant overseer. 90 Church Road
 Edward Sheldon, coal merchant. 83 High Street
 Ernest Sheldon, cycle agent. 94 Church Road
 Mrs. Frederick Sheldon, blacksmith. 84 Church Road
 Charles Shepherd, farmer. Ambrose Farm (lived here) and Crown Farm
 Edward Shepherd, insurance agent. 5 Kiln Lane
 Joseph Shepherd, carman. Lynton House, 83 High Street
 George Shrimpton, carpenter. The eastern part of Taylors, 50 High Street
 Frederick Stamp, china & glass dealer, 56 or 62 High Street
 George Stayton, carrier. Tudor Cottage, 63 High Street
 Joseph Sturgess, Kings Arms PH & boot maker
 Benjamin Thornton, market gardener. Gardencroft, Roman Road
 William Tombs, Crown PH
 Maud Tubb (Miss) stationer and Post Office. 48 High Street
 George Walde, Plough PH
 Edward Walker, farmer, Rectory Farm
 Weedon Brothers, coal merchants & chemical manure Manufacturers. Business in the Station Yard
 James White, collector & sanitary inspector of the Urban District Council. 96 Church Road