

3.3.17

Wales Cymru

Hello, Good Evening and Welcome to Wheatley Society's Welsh Evening

Helo, Noswaith Dda a Croeso i'r
Noson Gymraeg Gymdeithas
Wheatley

Running order for the Welsh Evening

Introduction to the Welsh Evening – Allan Hicks

Cwm Rhondda (Guide Me O Thou Great Redeemer) - led by Mark Williams and Glenys Fox. Verses 1 and 3 in English 2 in Welsh – join where you wish.

Poem ('The Old Language' by R. S. Thomas) – Cynthia Mancey

Song (The Ash Grove) – solo by David Keene

Welsh readings ('Y Llwynog' (The Fox) and 'Ty'r Ysgol (School House)) – Glenys Fox

Interval/main course

Men of Harlech (The Woad Song) – introduction by Roger Simmonds, singing led by Mark Williams and Roger, audience join in from the beginning

Bed scene from Under Milk Wood – Cynthia Mancey, Jack Turner, Colin Ring

Ar Hyd y Nos (All Through the Night) - solo by David Keene

Poetry by Scribbling Williams - Kit Arnold

Interval/desert

Introduction to Under Milk Wood by Richard Burton – recording

Cosher Bailey's Engine - Jack Turner

'Eli Jenkins Prayer' from Under Milk Wood - John Fox

Welsh National Anthem – Verses 1 and 3 in English 2 in Welsh – join where you wish.

Those Were the Days (Mary Hopkin) – recording all join in

Wheatley Society

Welsh evening,

Menu.

During the first interval: –

Cawl with Soda bread.

During the second interval: –

Barra Brith and Welsh cakes with Caerphilly cheese and Grapes.

Gluten free option will be available.