

2806 Ernest Alden family tree & butcher

So, in 1898, there were four different Aldens at eight butchers' stalls.
The family also owned Alden's Farm over Wheatley Bridge (but outside the Parish)<sup>8</sup>

<sup>1</sup> <https://southoxfordhistory.org.uk/interesting-buildings-in-grandpont-and-south-oxford/eastwyke-farm>

<sup>2</sup> Published article on Wheatley Church Plate in 1928, found at <https://www.wheatleyarchive.org.uk/images/files/1072-wheatley-s-church-plate.pdf>

<sup>3</sup> <https://www.oxfordmail.co.uk/news/3939180.jobs-risk-alden-press/>

<sup>4</sup> See <https://www.wheatleyarchive.org.uk/images/files/2073-directory-1911-alpha-with-current-house-details-v4.pdf>. Also at Record 2636 on the history of Park Hill

<sup>5</sup> See <https://www.wheatleyarchive.org.uk/images/files/1761-rose-family.pdf> where it is mentioned in the Rose family tree

<sup>6</sup> See <https://www.wheatleyarchive.org.uk/> and found, as such in the Kelly's Directories of 1920 and 1931

<sup>7</sup> Informant and grandson of Frederick George

<sup>8</sup> See <https://www.wheatleyarchive.org.uk/> Record 2111 shows a photo of the wash house to this farm