Our Pantomime is set in the City of London, not far from the quayside of the River Thames, where Alderman Fitzwarren has his famous Store selling all kinds of artefacts and haberdashery. Our hero Dick Whittington arrives from Wheatley seeking fame and fortune, and is befriended by Tommy the Cat, who helps him get a job at Fitzwarren's Store.

Dick soon meets Alice Fitzwarren or 'Fitz' as she's known to her poisonous Girl-Gang, who would have been out rioting and looting designer clothes and electrical goods had they been invented; so instead, they instantly take a dislike to Dick and Tommy his "flea-ridden mog". But, despite this hostility, sweet innocent Dick immediately falls in love with Alice.

Also, determined to stop this blossoming romance are King Rat and Queen Rat, who are determined to take over London, but fortunately for our young couple, they have a Fairy Godmother in Fairy Bow-Bells, who will see they come to no harm.

We shall see, as Dick is accused of robbery, they sail-off in the SS Pickled Herring, not surprisingly are shipwrecked, as after all, it's hardly a luxury yacht. Once shipwrecked, they have to survive Cannibals, the Sultana of Morocco and her man-slave Zubediah, a plague of rats, and Idle Jack's sing-a-long.

So who will win the day and will they live happily ever after? Not even Neil at the Post Office, who knows everything, or the richest man in Wheatley – Paul at the Londis, (as he sold it and moved on) have the answers. Wait and see and let our story unfold....
